To the Editor of the Eagle:

Not remembering to have seen anything from the pen of your critic, or for that matter from the pen of any newspaper writer of the state approaching the genuine genius and melody of years "for those who felt it," I protest against the intermeddling of the unappreciative.

LADY READER.

Last evening as the K. of P. band was marching down Topeka avenue, past the house of Ad N. Jones, they were called in by this gentleman and given quite a delightful treat. After which they had the pleasure of listening to some fine music and songs by Miss Carey, of St. Louis, and by a quartette composed of Messrs. Bracken, Hays, Baldwin and Howe. The boys were highly delighted with their entertainment and will ever remember their genial host with pleasure.

POLICE COURT.

David Pigott and George Lee had been drunk the day before, and when the charge was made against them in court yesterday morning both pled guilty and were fined $5 each. Lee paid his fine and was dismissed; Pigott, however, had no money and was committed.

Maud Lamb for being a prostitute turned in a fine of $10.

THE NATION.

Mr. Gratton informs us that his new material is all on hand, but as the whole paper, advertisements and all has to be set up this week and printers are scarce in town, it will be impossible for him to get out a paper this week, but next week and from that on everything will move right along regularly, and the Nation will appear every Friday morning.

A NEWSPAPER MAN.

Mr. F. L. Marshall, traveling correspondent for the New York World and the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, arrived in the city last night. He was here six years ago and expresses himself as greatly surprised at the wonderful growth of the city. He is here for the purpose of giving the city a write up of two or three columns which will be published in both the papers he represents. His article will be given gratis. He expects to remain in the city until next week.

LEANS VY. FATS.

To the Editor of the Eagle:

The fat fellows are playing a splendid game of ball with their mouths, but have demonstrated their inability to play ball a little bit in the field. After the result of the last game it would seem cruel for the leans to give them another drubbing. To give the fats another change, we will play them an old fashioned game of "bull pen," at the fair grounds at a time to be hereafter agreed upon.

This may be hard on the fats, but it will afford fun for the boys and funds for the home.

W. E. STANLEY.

THREE CAUGHT.

Detective McMahon arrived yesterday with Albert E. Thurman who it will be remembered stole two gold watches at the Fisher boarding house some weeks ago. The prisoner says he walked from this city to Andover on the night he stole the watches and there took the train for Carthage, Missouri. The watch he had which belonged to Mr. Martin he traded to the conductor on the train for six dollars and a half which was the price of his ticket. He went from Carthage to Fort Smith, Arkansas, where he was captured. He was at work in the Boston Clothing store. He had there put up the gold watch belonging to John Gaffney, which brought $1.00 at the Catholic fair last fall, for $10. It will be recovered in a few days.

CAMP-FIRE.

Gardner post will hold a camp-fire on Thursday evening, September 24, 1886, to which the public is invited. After the supper those who desire to dance will have an opportunity to do so. A special effort will be made to see that all who may attend that they will want the post to hold these camp-fires more frequently. The following gentlemen have the matter in charge:

Committee on camp-fire—Comrades, John Fisher, Abe Wright, F. J. Arnold, J. D. Caldwell and Alfred Ratto.

Flow managers—H. D. Heiserman, John Dorr, Henry Myers, Chas. Hutton and H. W. Kendle.

Committee on music, program and printing, B. H. Downing and J. O. Wilkinson.

A PRESENTATION.

James Kearns, the popular city marshal was yesterday morning the recipient of a handsome revolver and belt filled with cartridges. It is a Smith & Wesson, 38 calibre, ivory handled, silver mounted, and carved with the inscription: "To Jimmie Kearns from the boys, Wichita, Kansas." With the gift was the following letter:

To James Kearns, City Marshal.

In recognition of your valiant and efficient services to the city in general, and us in particular, allow us to present this testimonial of our friendship and regard.—Frank S. Burt, G. A. English, E. J. Baettie, E. J. Johnson, Kansas Furniture Co., B. Hernes, T. Lilly, Ben Heimen, John Sullard, Tom McManis, Rhodes & Clayton, Frank E. Brown, Chas. Fou, Frimes & Drake, E. C. Hodger, J. A. Gleason, John White, Walter Gibbs, Tom Fahy, William Dane, A. C. Gants, S. Galistine, Thomas Mahan, Wellington Ranson.

—T. L. Moore and W. W. Richardson are in the city the guests of the Manhattan.

—Miss Addie Ordway, daughter of Dr. S. S. Ordway, arrived yesterday from Iowa where she has been attending a female seminary.

—Mr. Alonzo Dishman, a prominent and brilliant young attorney of Wellington, came up to the city last evening on professional business. He made the Eagle a pleasant visit last night will return home this morning.

—James McConachie, a popular and well known young man of this city, formerly clerk at the real estate office of Hotchick & Wheeler, left last night for Arkansas City to accept a position in the new shoe store of Sam D. Stover.

THE FAIR.

To the Editor of the Eagle:

Please say to those who reside on the Wichita & Colorado railroad between Wichita and Hutchinson, that the train that leaves Wichita at 1 o'clock p. m. will leave Wichita at 3:50 and west Wichita at 4 o'clock sharp, on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week (fair days), provided twenty or more persons come down on the morning train to attend the fair. This will afford persons as far west as Hutchinson to attend the fair and return home the same day.

D. A. MITCHELL, Sec'y.

SERENADES.

Last evening at 8:30 the K. of P. band serenaded Hon. John G. Carlisle at the residence of his son, W. K. Carlisle, on North Emporia avenue. After the boys had played one of those delightful pieces of music for which they are noted, Mr. Carlisle appeared on the front porch with his son and stated that he would be glad to make a speech, but on account of his weariness from long travel and work of the day he hoped they would excuse him. He would, however, be glad to be introduced to them and invited them all into the house.

After an introduction another piece of music was played in the parlor, during which a party of ladies and gentlemen under escort of Messrs. Frank Smith and Fred Bentley, came up on horseback to pay their respects to the city's honored guest.

PROHIBITIONISTS.

The prohibitionists met at Memorial hall yesterday afternoon for the nomination of county officers and representatives from the eighty-second, eighty-third and eighty-fourth districts.

About one hundred persons were present, one-fourth, at least, being women. The meeting was called to order at 2:30. Col. Thos. Edmonson, of Grant township, was elected president and W. H. Ranson, secretary.

The following officers were then nominated: Dr. Johnson, representative from eighty-second district; W. B. Graham from the eighty-third, and Rev. A. H. Parker from the eighty-fourth; I. P. Campbell, county attorney; R. H. Fisher, probate judge; Mrs. M. E. Lease, county superintendent; W. H. Ranson, district clerk; M. M. Dorman, commissioner from third district.

Owing to the state of the town and great difficulty in finding people, hereafter all bills not paid by the 15th of the month will be sent by mail, and the parties will be expected to call in and settle before the bills are mailed.

NEW YORK STORE,
M. KOHN & CO.,

BOSTON --:-- STORE

Prices Tell and People Tell the Prices.

Big prices will not in these times when even the wealthy cannot afford to waste their money and the poor require double duty of every dollar and every penny, hence we throw out to the people of Wichita and Sedgwick county the following goods at prices never before offered by any concern in the state of Kansas

Blankets! --:-- Blankets! --:-- Blankets!

Full size White Blankets at 1.23, 1.93, 2.59 and 2.69. An extra size strictly all wool, white, red and blue blankets, never before offered for less than $5.00, our price $3.18. You ask, how can we sell them so cheap. Our reply is, we bought them direct from the mill in January last before the advance in woolsens. In addition to our lines of white and scar blankets we have an immense line of blue, brown and silvery blankets that range from 69c a pair and upward. An inspection of our blanket department means sure sales.

Comforts! --:-- Comforts! --:-- Comforts!

In this line we propose positively to have no competition. We have now in stock over Fifteen Hundred Comforts and go they must, as we cannot store them all. Our prices range at 73, 93, 1.13, 1.33, 1.53, 1.93 and 2.43. Such values were never before shown and likely will never be shown again when this lot is closed.

Flannels! --:-- Flannels! --:-- Flannels!

Again we intend to lead. Our Flannel Stock has been selected with the greatest care so to have the best quality for the least money. We have every grade of plain and striped, white, blue, grey, shaker and opera. As the line is so extensive, we have not the space to quote prices, but will assure you TO LOOK IS TO BUY. An extra weight fancy Flannel in pin checks, broken plaids, decided checks at 20c per yard. Equal it if you can for less than 30c. Our full 5 ounce fancy flannel in every desirable shade, that cannot be matched for less than 40c, we place before you at 29c. Ask your neighbor what he or she thinks of that price.

Cantons! --:-- Cantons! --:-- Cantons!

Every mill has been searched closely by OUR BUYERS and we know our figures cannot be equalled. We start that line at 5c per yard and place for your inspection our 7 1/2, 9 and 10c goods that are considered cheap by our competitors at an advance of 25 per cent.

--:-- CLOAKS --:-- AND --:-- WRAPS --:--

This department shall be a special feature in our store this fall, and we have carefully calculated each and every garment, placing on them a staple margin that will astonish the closest buyer. We have bought the entire lot at one-half the manufacturers cost which we take pleasure in quoting to you. Our children's garments we will start at the marvelously low price of 19c a garment, cannot be bought by any competing house at $1. An all wool black diagonal Newmarket 58 inches long, handsome plaid, in all sizes; usual price universally $4, our price $3.93. Our line of short wraps, short jackets, newmarkets, seal plush saques, no matter what, the price will be proportionately, as cheap as our 19c wrap for children.

--:-- BOOTS --:-- AND --:-- SHOES --:--

This department we have opened in the past two weeks and will give same equal attention as to all other departments. We can show the old, the young, the middle-aged and all who will favor us with a call, for less money than any house in this city. Our hand turned Ladies Curoso and Brazilian kid, we offer at $2.73, price everywhere $3.50. We cannot name all our bargains in this line as they would occupy too much space. We invite comparison and defy competition.

--:-- Ladies' Gents' and Misses' Underwear --:--

Here we are certainly headquarters and can show more styles, and larger quantities than any house in the west. Strictly all wool scarlet shirts, usual price 75c, our price 39c; heavy all wool scarlet shirts, sold everywhere $1, our price 75c. Ladies' wear Merino cashmere, Camels' hair Scotch, that will please the eye in quality and fit the purse in price. The above department awaits your careful examination. We would gladly enumerate all the lines and prices in our Mammoth Store Room, but time and space will not permit.
